1	Liam eating things he should not eat Liam likes to chew things as it gives him good feedback. Liam likes the taste of some unusual things. Liam can be hungry or thirsty and does not know how to ask, and the object is all that is available to him. Liam likes the predictable response it gives him. Risk of choking or swallowing dangers and harmful items	3	3	9	Treat	1. Staff will ensure dangerous items are locked away and not available to Liam. 2. Staff will ensure things are in place to meet Liam's sensory needs to chew and mouth things. 3. Staff to ensure that snacks are structured for him and only food available at food times. Liam must not be able to access food at any other times. Mealtimes are: Breakfast, snack, lunch, snack, dinner, supper When it is time for a snack/meal, staff will put the choices for snack or meals on the front of Liam's PECS book Staff will encourage Liam to use his phrase, "I want..." script to make a request 4. If Liam has had an appropriate portion of something, (e.g. 1 yoghurt or 2 biscuits), staff will then take symbol off board and tell him it is "finished". Direct him to what is left or when they have all gone tell him that snack/meal is finished. 5. Staff to encourage Liam to ask for something to eat and drink when he needs it. 6. Staff should always give Liam a drink when he asks. 7. If Liam has got something to eat or drink he shouldn't have, take it away with no verbal response and limited reaction as possible as this may be reinforcing the behaviour. 8. Staff then to support him to to ask for something appropriate to eat or drink. 9. Seek urgent medical attention if required in Liam swallows any inappropriate object 10. Contact Liam's mum at the earliest opportunity to advise of the situation.	3	LF Staff team	09/03/21
